

Andy Adsit

May 13, 1965 – April 18, 2024

Andy Adsit, 58, was born to Jim and Judy (Megee) Adsit in Carmi, IL, on May 13, 1965, and passed away in Stillwater, OK, on April 18, 2024. He was raised in Cleveland, OK. Andy participated in several sports and received the Billy Vessels high school football trophy his senior year. He also participated in FFA and Student Council. Andy graduated from Oklahoma State University with degrees in History and Education. Following graduation, he became an IT analyst at Oklahoma State University. He retired from OSU in 2019. In his free time, Andy pursued several interests, including photography, camping, and observing nature. He also enjoyed playing pool and disk golf in addition to taking things apart to discover how they worked. In addition, he enjoyed tracing his family lineage. Another of his activities was serving as a marriage officiant. His retirement highlight was spending time with his son, daughter-in-law, and granddaughter. Jim was preceded in death by his father, Jim. He is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Hazen and Shelby Adsit, his granddaughter, Emersyn Adsit, his mother, Judy Adsit, his brother and sister-in-law, Jimmy and Niki Adsit, and his sister and sister-in-law, Julie and Michelle Whitman.